Home builds strength...

"Getting my own home for my children has given me tremendous courage and the knowledge that we are capable of anything if we persevere. Also, it has been a privilege and joy to meet so many people that are so willing to help others - just kindness for the sake of kindness. I am so grateful."

- Elaine, Habitat Homeowner since December 2021

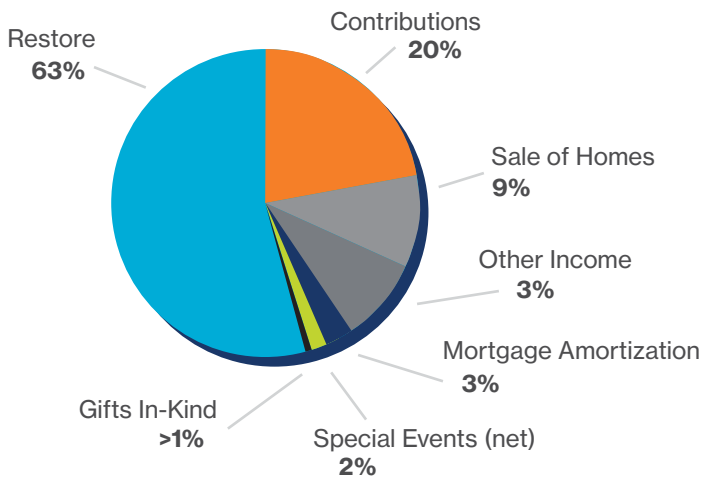

Home builds stability...

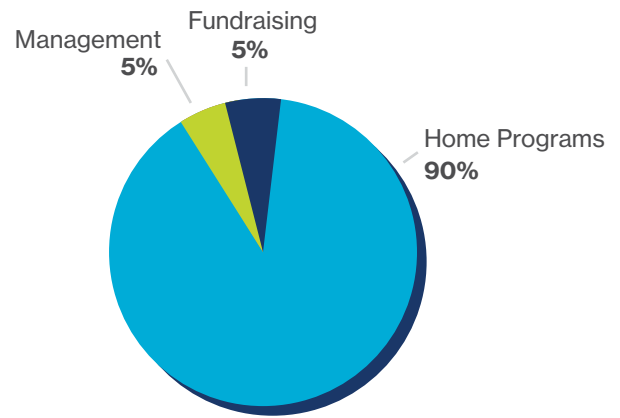

"My biggest dream for myself and my sons was a house - one we can call our own; one that no one can take from us; one we can put the hard work in to make it what we want. You have restored my faith in my beliefs to work hard and be kind, because the rest will always fall into place."

- Melissa, Habitat Homeowner since April 2022
